The Chick

Written by Lee-Ann Lear

The sun was up, and the ranch was hot. A hen was sitting on a nest in the sun. Crack! The hen jumped up! An egg had a crack! The hen spotted a patch of fluff in the crack.

Peck, peck, peck. The chick pecked its shell. It pecked and pushed. It pecked and pecked and pushed and pushed! Crack! The shell split! The chick hatched!

The chick spotted its mom. It sat and had a rest next to its mom in the nest.

The hen got up and fetched a snack. The chick hopped up and had a big stretch. The hen put the snack next to the chick, and it grabbed the snack.

It was such a big job to hatch!
