

Up High

Written by Lee-Ann Lear

Up High

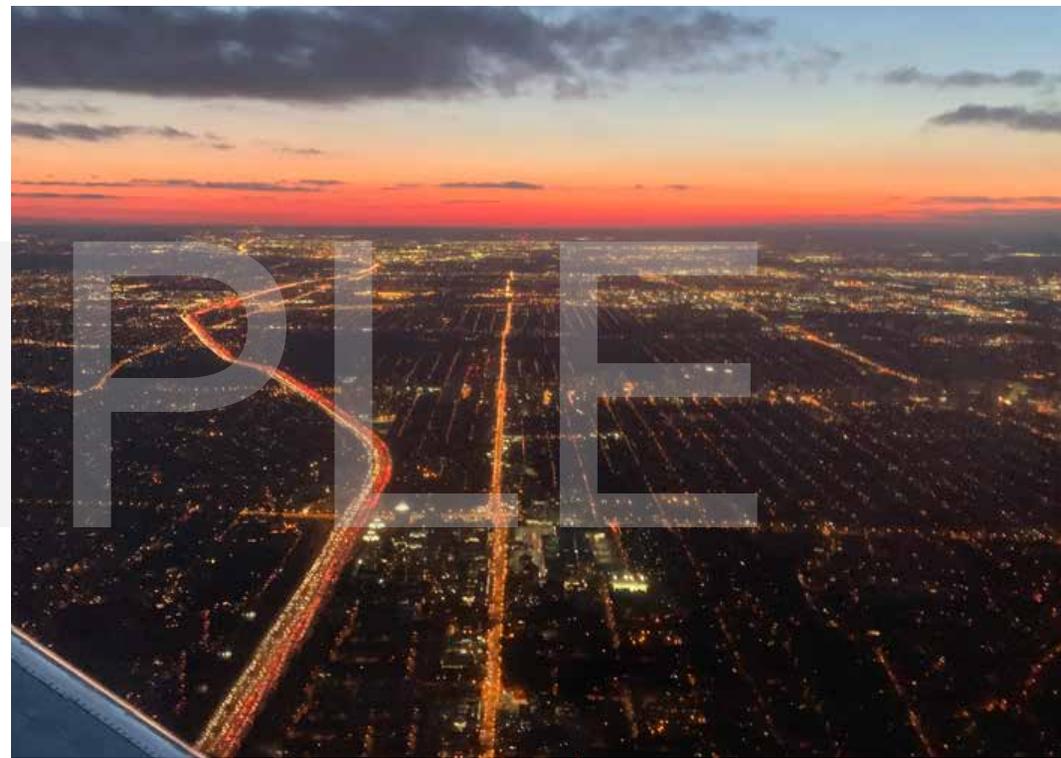

Written by Lee-Ann Lear

It can be thrilling to be up high!

A jet will take you high in the sky. When flying at night, you can spot the major roads and city lights!

4

You might love going up, but a rapid drop can give you a fright! This ride spins as it travels up. It holds you at the top for a moment. Then, you plummet to the bottom. Yikes!

6

From the top of a high cliff, you might see birds in flight or a floating boat. Stay safe, and watch your step!

8

A bridge can also be a thrilling way to explore a high place. A bridge can span between the treetops. You might get a fright if the bridge sways in the wind!

10

If you are brave, you can take a lift up a slope. These chairs hang from strong wires, and take you right up to the top. The sights will impress you!

12

This zipline is high. Strap in tight! You can sightsee as you zip along at a fast pace.

14

Do you like being up high?

Up High Book 2 Red Series
Grapheme/Phoneme Correspondence -vowel trigraph <igh>/i/ (e.g., "high")	Punctuation/Text Features -n/a
Orthographic Conventions -n/a	High Frequency Words -n/a
Morphology -n/a	Word Count -177 words

Copyright © 2023 SyllaSense Inc.

MS2306

Select Photos Copyright © Shutterstock Inc.

Page 11 - Yingna Cai

Page 15 - Shawn.ccf

Page 16 - ORION PRODUCTION

Select Photos Copyright © iStock.com

Cover, Page 13 - pufflic_senior

Page 5 - Melanie Long

Page 7 - Nicvandum

Page 3 - Dedy Andrianto

Select Photos Copyright © stock.adobe.com

Page 1, Page 9 - michaeljung

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced in any manner without the express written permission of the publisher.

ISBN 978-1-990884-43-6

Made in Canada

www.syllasense.com

ISBN 978-1-990884-43-6

9 781990 884436

Red Series
Up High
Book 2
177 words