

Big and Small

Written by Lee-Ann Lear

Big and Small

Written by Lee-Ann Lear

Things can be big.

Things can be small as well.

4

You can spot big things
next to small things. Mixing big and small can be fun.

6

Seth is SO big! Enzo is not big at all. Enzo has to run if he wants to go as fast as Dad and Seth.

8

We think this frog is small, but the bug thinks the frog is big! Can you spot the bug? The bug will sit still so the frog will not catch it.

10

Jo is small. She is standing next to a trunk that is so tall! Jo thinks the trunk will stretch up until it gets to the sun.

12

This ship is long and tall. The tug is small, but it is also strong! It can pull a jumbo ship to its dock.

14

Can you mix big things with small things?

16

Big and Small
Teal Square: Book 1
Grapheme/Phoneme Correspondence - <e>/ē/ (me) and <o>/ō/ (go)	Punctuation/Text Features - n/a
Orthographic Conventions - long vowel phonemes in open syllables	High-Frequency Words and Content Words - you
Morphology - n/a	Word Count - 141 words

Select Photos Copyright © Getty Images
Cover, Page 7 — Orla
Inside Cover, Page 13 — AscentXmedia
Page 3 — Manoj Shah
Page 5 — Gins Wang
Page 11 — Photo by marianna armata

Select Photos Copyright © Getty Images
Page 15 — nightman1965
Page 16 — Andre Kudysov

Select Photos Copyright © stock.adobe.com
Page 9 — gemphotography

Copyright © 2026 SyllaSense Inc.
All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced in any manner without the express written permission of the publisher.
Made in Canada MS2602 ISBN 978-1-997678-80-9

Big and Small

Teal Square
Book 1
141 words

ISBN 978-1-997678-80-9

www.syllasense.com